

House Resolution No.

Whereas, each year the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause from the obligations bestowed upon them to recognize great service to Missourians; and

Whereas, it is axiomatic that the Missouri House of Representatives recognize the distinguished service of its employees that go above and beyond expectation to serve the members of this august body and the people of Missouri; and

Whereas, the Missouri House of Representatives is today assembled to recognize the exceptional caliber of service delivered by the Outstanding House Employee; and

Whereas, several individuals placed into consideration the name of Naomi Vetter for the award of Outstanding House Employee; and

Whereas, Naomi Vetter began her record of diligent service to the Missouri House of Representatives on January 6, 1986 and has continued for twenty-two sessions of service with the House by assisting former Representative Jim Howerton and former Representative Merrill Townley, and now serves as a legislator assistant to Representative Shannon Cooper; and

Whereas, on January 20, 2005 Naomi Vetter accepted the responsibilities associated with serving as secretary to the House Committee on Rules to which more than 214 bills were referred in that year and more than 218 bills were referred in 2006; and

Whereas, Mrs. Vetter has successfully balanced the demands of a professional career at the House of Representatives with her forty-five year marriage to her husband Louis while raising seven children – Greg, Phil, Vince, Derrick, Tracy, Darren, and Tiffany – who have provided her with five grandchildren – Kaymen, Dalton, Prescott, Quinten, and Karina; and

Whereas, Naomi Vetter has also demonstrated her passionate concern for others by serving as a volunteer with several community organizations; and

Whereas, Mrs. Vetter has earned the admiration and respect of her peers through her mild-mannered, quiet, yet always friendly attitude aimed at assisting others:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exceptional professional contributions so generously given by Naomi Vetter to the people of Missouri and to convey to her this body's most heartfelt congratulations upon her well-deserved recognition as an Outstanding House Employee; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Naomi Vetter.
